Policies & Procedures For Thailand Enagic Distributors

1. The Company, Policies & Procedures.

Enagic (Thailand) Co Ltd., hereinafter the "Company," is a direct selling company marketing health products and other consumer products and services to the consumer through independent distributors. The Policies and Procedures herein are applicable to all independent distributors of the Company. Further, the published Enagic Distributor Handbook, as amended and published from time to time, is incorporated as a part of these Policies and the Enagic Distributor Agreement.

2. Distributor Qualifications.

A distributor is one who has completed a Company application and agreement and has been accepted by the Company as a distributor. The Company reserves the right to accept or reject anyone as a distributor.

All distributors must be of legal age in the state or country in which they reside. Unless waived in writing by the Company upon application, the Company will consider each married couple as a single distributor. Husbands and wives may sponsor each other directly, but may not be sponsored in different lines. If the Company finds that the second spouse was sponsored in a different line by any reasons after the initial spouse was sponsored, the Company reserves the right to change the status of a spouse from a distributor into a user, or transfer the distributorship of a spouse into his or her upline distributor. If a spouse is already a distributor, the nonparticipating spouse may elect to become a distributor, but must join the same distributorship as his or her spouse, or be directly sponsored by his or her spouse. The Company reserves the right to reject any applications for new distributorships. Should a husband/wife distributor divorce, they should notify the Company as to how the distributorship is to be managed thereafter. Otherwise, the Company will recognize the final judicial or adjudicatory disposition of the distributorship.

When an existing distributor is willing to open the second or third distributorship, this account has to be opened under his/her existing account or under his/her sponsor's account.

Distributors are independent marketing representatives of the Company and are not to be considered purchasers of a franchise or a distributorship. The agreement between the Company and its distributors does not create an employer/employee relationship, agency, partnership, or joint venture between the Company and the distributors. Each distributor shall hold harmless the Company from any claims, damages or liabilities arising out of distributor's business practices. Company distributors have no authority to bind the Company to any obligation. Each distributor is encouraged to set up his/her own hours and to determine his/her own method of sale, so long as he/she complies with the policies and procedures of the Company.

Independent distributors are fully responsible for properly paying all applicable taxes and fees as per the laws of the Revenue Department. Enagic (Thailand) Co., Ltd. does not perform any withholding services nor is the firm responsible for unpaid taxes on behalf of independent distributors.

The company's program is built upon retail sales to the ultimate consumer. The company also recognizes that distributors may wish to purchase product or service in reasonable amounts for their own personal or family use. For this reason, a retail sale for bonus purposes shall include sales to non-participants, as well as sales to distributors for personal or family use which are not made for purposes of qualification or advancement. It is company policy, however, to strictly prohibit the purchase of product or large quantities of inventory in unreasonable amounts solely for the purpose of qualifying for bonuses or advancement in the marketing program. Distributors may not inventory load nor encourage others in the program to load up on inventory. Distributors must fulfill published personal and downline retail sales requirements, including requisite retail sales to non-participants, as well as supervisory responsibilities, to qualify for bonuses, overrides or advancements.

Distributors may not make statements or representations regarding the Company other than those approved and provided in writing by the Company; such as its Policies and Procedures and/or any other official printed literature and publications.

3. Transaction Submission Integrity.

It is essential to the success of the Company, its distributors and customers that submissions of transactions to the Company maintain integrity of communication. It is to be expected that all transactions submissions to the Company, including, but not limited to, distributor applications, distributor communication, distributor financial transactions and consumer transactions, be submitted by the individual or entity involved in the transaction. Third party submission of any and all transactions submissions is prohibited. A distributor should not communicate any transactions submissions on behalf of another distributor, distributor applicant or customer. A distributor may not use his or her credit card or bank account on behalf of another individual or distributor, except as allowed for as an alternate payer. This rule is applicable to any and all forms of transactions submissions, including, but not limited to, online, telephone, fax, email, etc.

4. Business Conduct

In the conduct of business, the distributor shall safeguard and promote the reputation of the products and services of the Company and shall refrain from all conduct which might be harmful to such reputation of the Company or to the marketing of such products and services or inconsistent with the public interest, and shall avoid all discourteous, deceptive, misleading, unethical or immoral conduct or practices, A distributor shall not interfere with, harass or undermine other distributors and, at all times, shall respect the privacy of other distributors. A distributor must not disparage the Company, other Company distributors, Company products and/or services, the marketing and commission plans, or Company employees. Violation of the above is grounds for termination.

"Stealing" sales from others, even those within your group are strictly forbidden and can result in the freezing of future commissions of the individual conducting the unethical practice.

Enagic will not get involved in distributor disputes, all disputes must be discussed and handled through your 6A. If the issue in question involves your 6A, the person at a higher level must be contacted. 6A level and above distributors should call the company in the event that they are unable to resolve the dispute.

5. Providing Sponsor Support

Any distributor, who sponsors other distributors, must fulfill the obligation of performing a bona fide supervisory, distributing and selling function in the sale and/or delivery of product to the ultimate consumer and in the training of those sponsored. Distributors must have ongoing contact, communication and management supervision with their sales organization. Examples of such supervision may include, but are not limited to: written correspondence, personal meetings, telephone contact, voice mail, electronic mail, training sessions, accompanying individuals to company training, etc. Distributors should provide to the Company annually proof of ongoing fulfillment of their sponsor responsibilities.

Since the household member that has an ownership interest in the Company distributorship is in the best position to be responsible to prevent raiding or cross-sponsoring activity by their co-household member, the cross recruiting activity of the non-company household member shall be attributed to the Company distributorship, subjecting the distributorship to discipline or termination.

results are not as extensive or as rapid as a hypothetical model would suggest. The Company believes firmly that the income potential is great enough to be highly attractive in reality without resorting to artificial and unrealistic projections.
