Policies & Procedures

1. The Company, Policies & procedures, Distributor Handbook

Enagic (Thailand) Co Ltd., hereinafter the "Company," is a direct selling company marketing health products and other consumer products and services to the consumer through independent distributors. The Policies and Procedures herein are applicable to all independent distributors of the Company. Further, the published Enagic Distributor Handbook, as amended and published from time to time, is incorporated as a part of these Policies and the Enagic Distributor Agreement.

2. Distributor Qualifications.

An independent Distributor is one who has completed a Company application and distributor agreement and has been accepted by the Company as an independent distributor. All distributors must be of legal age in the state or country in which they reside. The Company reserves the right to accept or reject anyone as an independent distributor.

Unless waived in writing by the Company upon application, the Company will consider each married couple as a single distributor. Husbands and wives may sponsor each other directly but may not be sponsored in different lines. If the Company finds that the spouse was sponsored in a different line by any reason, the Company reserves the right to change the status of the spouse from an independent distributor into a user or transfer the distributorship to his or her upline.

When an existing independent distributor is willing to open the second or third distributorship, this account has to be opened under his/her existing account or under his/her sponsor's account.

Independent distributors are independent marketing representatives of the Company and are not to be considered purchasers of a franchise or a distributorship. The agreement between the Company and its distributors does not create an employer/employee relationship, agency, partnership, or joint venture. Independent distributors are independent contractors; they are free to enter into separate agreements with other independent distributors involving the conduct of their distributorships, subject only to the distributor agreement, policies and procedures and distributor handbook. Each independent distributor shall hold harmless the Company from any claims, damages or liabilities arising out of the distributor's business practices. Company distributors have no authority to bind the Company to any obligation. Each distributor is encouraged to set up his/her own hours and to determine his/her own method of sale, so long as he/she complies with the policies and procedures of the Company. The company's program is built upon retail sales to the ultimate consumer. The company also recognizes that independent distributors may wish to purchase products or services in reasonable amounts for their own personal or family use. For this reason, a retail sale for bonus purposes shall include sales to non-participants, as well as sales to distributors for personal or family use which are not made for purposes of qualification or advancement. It is company policy, however, to strictly prohibit the purchase of products or large quantities of inventory in unreasonable amounts solely for the purpose of qualifying for bonuses or advancement in the marketing program. Independent distributors may not inventory load nor encourage others in the program to load up on inventory. Independent distributors must fulfill published personal and downline retail sales requirements, including requisite retail sales to non-participants, as well as supervisory responsibilities, to qualify for bonuses, overrides or advancements.

Distributors may not make statements or representations regarding the Company other than those approved and provided in writing by the Company, such as its Policies and Procedures and/or any other official printed literature and publications.

3. Transaction Submission Integrity.

It is essential to the success of the Company, its independent distributors and customers that submissions of transactions to the Company maintain integrity of communication. It is to be expected that all transactions submissions to the Company, including, but not limited to, distributor applications, distributor communication, distributor financial transactions and consumer transactions, be submitted by the individual or entity involved in the transaction. Third party submission of any and all transactions submissions is prohibited. An independent distributor should not communicate any transactions submissions on behalf of another independent distributor or customer. An independent distributor may not use his or her credit card or bank account on behalf of another individual or independent distributor, except as allowed for as an alternate payer. This rule is applicable to any and all forms of transactions submissions, including, but not limited to, online, telephone, fax, email, etc.

4. Business Conduct

A distributor must not disparage the Company, other Company distributors, Company products and/or services, the marketing and commission plans, or Company employees. 12. Retail Establishments Company products or services may only be displayed and sold in retail establishments where the nature of the business is to make appointments with customers (such as salons, doctor's offices, and health clubs where appointments are made for personal training or classes are scheduled). Company produced literature, banners, or signage only may be displayed on a shelf, counter, or wall and must be displayed by itself. Products or services may not be sold from a shelf or taken from a display for purchase by a customer. Providing free Kangen Water® in bottled form to a prospective buyer is authorized. However, any labeling on the bottle or attached to the bottle, is strictly prohibited, as it may create confusion that the sample water is "bottled" or "for resale" (rather than a mere sampling provided person to person at no charge) in violation of state or local regulations regarding the "bottling" and/or sale of "bottled water".

With written authorization from the Company, Company products or services and opportunities may be displayed at trade shows by independent distributors. Company communication of changes may include, but shall not be limited to mail, email, fax, posting on the Company website, publication in company newsletters or magazines, etc.

- (a) Enagic reserves the right to make all final decisions as to the interpretation of the articles stated in the Company Policies and Procedures. The final company decision based on the interpretation of the articles stated in the Company Policies and Procedures is effective immediately. All independent distributors are obligated to follow the company's decision as to the interpretation of the articles of the Company Policies and Procedures.

32. Non-Individual Ownership

A partnership or corporation may be a distributor. However, no individual may participate in more than six (6) distributorships in any form without express written permission from the Company.

- (a) A distributorship may change status under the same sponsor from individual to partnership or corporation or from partnership to corporation with proper and complete documentation.

33. Individual Distributorship

An independent distributor may have up to six (6) distributorships in the Company (including any that may be owned as an entity), as long as they are within the same distributorship. The allowed six (6) distributorships may include a combination of any Kangen Water business accounts, Ukon DD and/or Ukon Sigma accounts. An individual will provide the Company with an ID card.

34. Entity Distributorship

An entity owner can have up to six (6) distributorships in the Company (including any that may be owned as an individual), as long as they are within the same distributorship. The allowed six (6) distributorships may include a combination of any Kangen Water business accounts, Ukon DD and/or Ukon Sigma accounts. No independent distributor may participate in more than six (6) independent distributorships in any form.

A distributorship may change status under the same sponsor from individual to business entity, or from one type of entity to another, with proper and complete documentation. To form a new distributorship as an entity, or to change status to an entity, an independent distributor must request a change request form from the corporate headquarters office. By submitting this form, said distributor certifies that no person with an interest in the business has had an interest in a distributorship within three (3) months of the submission of the form (unless it is the continuation of an existing distributorship that is changing its form of doing business).

In addition to the aforementioned change-request form, the applicable supporting documentation must also be submitted as follows:

- Product order and distributor application
- Business Registration with shareholders list.
- Director's identification card
- Bank information.
- Registration change form.

35. Entity Guarantee for Owners

Although the Company has offered independent distributors the opportunity to conduct their distributorship as a corporate or partnership entity, those entities are under the control of its owners and principals, the actions of individual owners or beneficiaries as they may affect Company's business. Therefore, it is agreed that the actions of individual owners or beneficiaries as they may affect the Company and the distributorship are also critical to the Company's business. Therefore it is agreed that actions of the ownership entity's shareholders, officers, directors, trustees, beneficiaries, agents, employees or other related or interested parties and the actions of such parties, which are in contrast to Company's policies shall be attributable to the corporate or partnership entity.

In the event that any of the ownership entity shareholders, officers, directors, trustees, beneficiaries, agents, employees or other related parties shall terminate ownership interests in the distributorship, any breaching actions by such parties that continue to have a beneficial financial interest, directly or indirectly, in the distributorship shall be attributable to the distributorship.

36. Members of Same Household; Responsibility

Members of the independent distributor's household should operate together as one Company distributorship unless otherwise allowed by these Policies and Procedures. Household is defined as husband, wife, and dependents. Children of legal age to contract and at least 18 years of age are not considered a part of their parent's household for the purpose of operating under the same distributorship.

The Company recognizes that members of the same household may belong to competing direct selling opportunities. Although the actions of the parties are normally in good faith, in some circumstances, there is an abuse of relationships in which the non-company affiliated household member is engaged in recruitment, solicitation or raiding of the Company sales organization. Since the household member that has an ownership interest in the Company distributorship is in the best position to be responsible to prevent raiding or cross-sponsoring activity by their co-household member, the cross-recruiting activity of the non-company household member will be attributed to the Company distributorship, subjecting the distributorship to discipline or termination.

37. Foreign Distributorships

A foreign independent distributor will be solely responsible for all applicable taxes, duties, and other fees associated with his/her distributorship. The foreign distributorship is subject to all applicable laws and regulations of his/her country of residence. The Company is not responsible for any failure by the foreign distributor to abide by the laws of his/her country of residence or other controlling jurisdiction. While the Company does attempt to provide notice whenever possible, it may not always be possible to do so. Change in Company Policy or other actions such as termination may occur without notice to the independent distributor.

38. Transfer of Distributorship

Distributorship of Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar and Vietnam will automatically be transferred to the Enagic office after the office is set up in his/her country afterward. Any matters concerning his/her distributorship, including payment of commission, will be handled by the Enagic office at his/her country.

39. Awards and Incentives vs. Commissions - Group Financial Support

When independent distributors make exceptional contributions to the Company, they become eligible for Group Financial Support (GFS) Incentives. Factors demonstrating exceptional contribution include, but are not limited to, outstanding sales efforts and remarkable sales group organization. GFS Incentives may differ in name in order to limit the eligible group (i.e., 6A 8-Level Award and 6A23 and Above New Incentive Award) but they are all awarded at the sole discretion of the Company.

GFS Incentives are not paid automatically and will differ based on the overall efforts of independent distributors. Any independent distributor subject to an Administrative Hold and/or Disciplinary Action will be ineligible for any Incentive. The GFS Incentive is intended to be used in accordance with the true meaning and mission of Enagic. Top leaders can use GFS for their downlines and market expansion of their Enagic business. This means reinvesting in their Enagic business to help as many people as possible around the world.

40. Commission, 6A Educational Allowance and / or Incentive for Inactive Distributor

(D0, FA0)

If you have a direct sale within three (3) months, you are qualified to receive full commission, 6A educational allowance and/or incentive. This status is called "SP".

If you do not have a direct sale within three (3) months, but you have at least one sale within six (6) months, you are qualified to receive fifty percent (50%) of the full commission, 6A educational allowance and/or incentive. This status is called "D0".

If you do not have a direct sale within six (6) months, you are not qualified to receive any commission, 6A educational allowance and/or incentive. This status is called "FA0".

Any distributor under FA0 status and who has not made a "direct sale" in more than 1 year may reactivate their business in a new position without regard to their former group, which automatically acts to cancel their former Distributorship. Please refer to the FA0 New Registration Form for rules and terms and conditions.

Company may in its sole discretion, re-assign any distributorship under FA0 status to another distributor in good standing or take any other action as necessary to maintain proper functioning of the distributor network.

41. Default in Payment

A distributorship will be terminated if an independent distributor defaults in payment of product purchases from the Company. In the event an independent distributor purchases product, either in the capacity as an User or an independent distributor, and subsequently defaults on payment, the distributorship is subject to immediate termination. The preceding rule is applicable to an independent distributor in an individual capacity that defaults, a corporate or partnership distributor where one of the principal owners defaults or any other default in payment where the defaulting party has an ownership interest in the distributorship.

42. Disciplinary Actions

Independent distributor's violation of any policies and procedures, the agreement, terms and conditions or any illegal, fraudulent, deceptive, or unethical business conduct may result, at the Company discretion, in one or more of the following disciplinary actions:

- (a) Issuance of a written warning or admonition.
- (b) Imposition of a fine, which may be imposed immediately or withheld from future commission checks.
- (c) Reassignment of all or part of an independent distributor's organization.
- (d) Freezing of commissions for an indefinite period.
- (e) Suspension, which may result in termination or reinstatement with conditions or restrictions.
- (f) Termination of the distributorship.

43. Right to Terminate

The Company reserves the right to terminate any distributorship at any time for cause when it is determined that the independent distributor has violated the provisions of the distributor agreement, including the provisions of these policies and procedures as they may be amended or the provisions of applicable laws and standards of fair dealing. Such involuntary termination shall be made by the Company at its discretion. Upon an involuntary termination, the Company will notify the independent distributor by email at the latest email address listed with the Company for the distributor. In the event of a termination, the terminated independent distributor agrees to immediately cease representing him/herself as an independent distributor

44. Termination

- (a) When a decision is made to terminate a distributorship, the Company will inform the independent distributor in writing that the distributorship is terminated immediately, effective as of the date of the written notification. The termination notice will be sent by certified email to the independent distributor's email address on file with the Company.
- (b) The independent distributor will have fifteen (15) days from the date of receiving the certified email in which to appeal the termination in writing and provide written response to the finding of violations of Company agreement, policies and/or rules. The distributor's appeal and/or response correspondence must be received by the Company within 20 days of the Company's termination letter. If the appeal is not received within 20 dayperiod, the termination will be automatically deemed final.
- (c) If an independent distributor files a timely appeal of termination, the Company will review and consider the termination, consider any other appropriate action, and notify the distributor of its decision. The decision of the Company will be final and subject to no further review. In the event the termination is not rescinded, the termination will be effective as of the date of the Company's original termination notice. The terminated distributor may not be sponsored as an independent distributor again.
- (d) Upon termination of a distributorship, all rights cease. He/she is no longer eligible for any commission, bonuses or prizes. He/she cannot advertise, sell or promote the Company products or purchase products from the Company.
- (e) The terminated distributor's down line organization automatically transfers to his/her immediate up line.

45. Sponsorship

All independent distributors have the right to sponsor others. In addition, every person has the ultimate right to choose his/her own sponsor. If two independent distributors should claim to be the sponsors of the same new independent distributor, the Company will regard the first application received by the corporate home office as controlling.

- (a) The company will issue distributor ID when documents completed and payment confirmed.
- (b) There is no "magic" involved in the Company or in any business. Those who sponsor widely but who do not help new independent distributors develop their business meet with limited success. Therefore, it is the independent distributor's responsibility to follow through and make sure the new independent distributor is properly informed and trained in the areas of the product, the compensation plan, the policies and procedures and the professional guidelines of the network marketing industry.
- (c) When soliciting a prospective independent distributor to join the Company's network program, the independent distributor must clearly explain the following.
 - 1) Products: type, performance and quality of each product.
 - 2) Commission plan
 - 3) Policies and Procedures
 - 4) independent distributor's rights and duties
 - 5) Other important items that will affect the judgment of the prospective distributor.
- (d) Independent distributors should never provide false information in order to encourage the conclusion of a sales agreement or to prevent the buyer from canceling the agreement.
- (e) Retail sales are a requirement of the Company's network program.
- (f) Each independent distributor must identify himself or herself by name and Company ID number to the prospective buyer.
- (g) Retail sales are a requirement of the Company's network program.

- (h) The Company offers no sales discounts or other concessions and the distributor cannot offer either. Any discounts offered by distributors may be grounds for termination.

46. Transfer of Sponsorship

Transfer is rarely permitted and is actively discouraged. Maintaining the integrity of sponsorship is absolutely mandatory for the success of the overall organization.

- (a) Transfers will generally be approved in only one of two (2) circumstances:
 - 1) In the case of unethical sponsoring by the original sponsor. In such cases, the Company will be the final authority.
 - 2) Resigning from the Company entirely and waiting six (6) months to reapply under the new sponsor.
- (b) In cases of unethical sponsoring, the independent distributor may be transferred with downline intact; in all other events, the individual alone is transferred without any downline being removed from the original line of sponsorship.

47. Income Claims

No income claims, income projections nor income representation, nor showing of commission such as bank statement, Enagic genealogy list may be made to prospective independent distributors. Any false, deceptive or misleading claims regarding the opportunity or product/service are prohibited. In their enthusiasm, distributors are occasionally tempted to represent hypothetical income figures based upon the inherent power of network marketing as actual income projections, this is counter-productive, since new independent distributors may be quickly disappointed if their results are not as extensive or as rapid as a hypothetical model would suggest. The Company believes firmly that the income potential is great enough to be highly attractive in reality without resorting to artificial and unrealistic projections.

48. Representation of Status

In all cases, any reference the independent distributor makes to him/herself must clearly set forth the distributor's independent status. For example, if the distributor has a business telephone, the telephone may not be listed under the Company's name or in any other manner which does not disclose the independent contractor status of the distributor.

49. Judgment and Tax Lien

The Company will comply fully with any court order or instruction/demand by any government taxing authorities within Thailand and Asia country (Cambodia, Laos, Myanmar and Vietnam) that orders, instructs or demands the withholding of an independent distributor's earnings from his/her distributorship with the Company.

50. Subpoenas Duces Tecum (Demands for Records)

Assuming proper jurisdiction, the Company will comply with all subpoenas duces tecum demanding financial compensation records of an independent distributor in his/her capacity as an independent contractor with the Company.

51. Request for Records

The Company will comply fully with all requests for records accompanied by a properly prepared and signed Authorization by the person whose records are being sought. The Company will comply fully with all requests for records by government agencies with the authority to request such records and accompanied by the requisite legal documentation.

52. Business Cards and Stationery

Any printed materials, including business Cards and stationery, must be approved by Enagic in advance. Criteria for approving these materials will include a judgment regarding the quality of the materials as well as properly setting forth the independent status of the independent distributor.

53. Telephone Solicitation

The use of the Company's name or copyrighted materials may not be made with automatic calling devices or "boiler room" operations either to solicit independent distributors or retail customers. The use of these methods in ways that are legal and are the equivalent of the "blind ads" alluded to above cannot be regulated by the Company.

54. Press Inquiries

Any inquiries by the media are to be referred immediately to the Company. This policy is to assure accuracy and a consistent public image.

55. Endorsement

Government regulatory agencies rarely approve or endorse direct selling programs. Therefore, independent distributors may not represent that the Company's program has been approved or endorsed by any government agency.

56. Indemnification and Hold Harmless

The independent Distributor hereby indemnifies and releases the Company, its officers, directors, agents and assigns and holds harmless from and against the full amount of any and all claims, causes of action, judicial and administrative proceedings suits, charges, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses, including without limitation court costs and reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys and consultants, which are or may be made, filed or assessed against Company at any time arising out of distributor's business operations and representations made by distributor in the operation of his/her business, arising from the following:

- (a) Violation and/or lack of compliance with terms of the distributor agreement, policies and procedures, rules and regulations, marketing program manual or guidelines or any other directive from the Company as to method and manner of operation of the independent distributor business;

- (e) Failure to adhere to any federal, state, or local law, regulation, ordinance and/or any order or rule issue by any court of appropriate jurisdiction;
- (f) Engaging in any action which exceeds the scope of authority to the distributor as granted by the Company.
- (g) Engaging in any activity over which Company has no effective control as to the actions of the distributor.
- (h) Failure to pay any income tax, sales tax, use tax or taxes or fees of any kind, payable by or on behalf of distributor in connection with: commissions or other monies paid by the Company to the distributor, and/or any sales tax or use tax required by state or local authorities to be paid by or on behalf of distributor in connection with the purchase or sale of Company products and services.

57. Waiver

The Company never gives up its right to insist on compliance with these rules or with the applicable laws governing the conduct of a business. This is true in all cases, both specifically expressed and implied, unless an officer of the Company who is authorized to bind the Company in contracts or agreements specifies in writing that the Company waives any of these provisions. In addition, any time the Company gives permission for a breach of the rules, that permission does not extend to future breaches. This provision deals with the concept of "waiver," and the parties agree that the Company does not waive any of its rights under any circumstances short of the written confirmation alluded to above.

58. Governing Law

These policies and procedures are reasonably related to the laws of Thailand and will be governed in all respects thereby. The parties agree that jurisdiction and venue will lie with the place of acceptance of the distributor application which is the government of Thailand.

59. Partial Validity

Should any portion of these policies and procedures, of the distributor's application and agreement, distributor handbook or of any other instruments referred to herein or issued by Enagic be declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the balance of such rules, applications, or instruments shall remain in full force and effect.

60. Arbitration

Any controversies or disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement will be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the then current Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association. The parties will endeavor to select a mutually acceptable arbitrator knowledgeable about issues relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. In the event the parties are unable to agree to such a selection, each party will select an arbitrator and the arbitrators in turn will select a third arbitrator. The arbitration will take place at a location that is reasonably centrally located between the parties, or otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties.

All documents, materials, and information in the possession of each party that are in any way relevant to the claim(s) or dispute(s) will be made available to the other party for review and copying no later than fourteen (14) days after the notice of arbitration is served.

The arbitrator(s) will not have the authority, power, or right to alter, change, amend, modify, add, or subtract from any provision of this Agreement or to award punitive damages. The arbitrator will have the power to issue mandatory orders and restraining orders in connection with the arbitration. The award rendered by the arbitrator will be final and binding on the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in any court having jurisdiction. The agreement to arbitration will be specifically enforceable under prevailing arbitration law. During the continuance of any arbitration proceeding, the parties will continue to perform their respective obligations under this Agreement.
